Primus steers to slow lane

ONE of Matthew Primus's first tasks since officially taking over as Port Adelaide coach last month will be guiding the Power to victory in tomorrow's Slowdown at Adelaide Oval.

And if Primus, pictured, doesn't like what he sees, he can do something about it with the retired ruckman pulling on the boots as captain/coach.

Primus will form a Power dream team by reuniting with former stars Gavin Wanganeen, Josh Francou, Brendon Lade and Stuart Dew for the annual clash against the Crows.

Organisers are bracing for a bumper day by showing the AFL grand final replay between Collingwood and St Kilda on the big screen as a curtain-raiser to their main event.

Primus will be up against former Crow Shaun Rehn who heads an Adelaide team boasting Mark Ricciuto, Tony Modra, Jarman brothers Andrew and Darren, and Wayne Weidemann.

Adelaide Oval gates open at 1pm, the AFL grand final will be shown live from 2pm and West End Slowdown XI starts at 7.10pm.

The day will also include Auskick clinics and a lap of honour by Little Heroes Foundation children and their families.

Entry is $5.
