Former AFL greats grace the Oval

REECE HOMFRAY

FOOTY is back at Adelaide Oval as early as next month.

The 2011 West End Slowdown returns to its original timeslot on the public holiday – Monday, October 3 – and organisers hope the success of Port Adelaide's recent AFL clash at the Oval will attract a big crowd.

The star-studded line-ups include three Brownlow Medallists – Robert Harvey, Gavin Wanganeen and Mark Ricciuto – three Magarey Medallists and three Coleman Medallists. The match will pit South Australia against Victoria, with local legends Warren Tredrea and Tony Modra headlining.

This year, Little Heroes Foundation teams up with the Reach Foundation. The match starts at 1.40pm, with tickets available at the gate only from 11am. Entry is $5 and children under five free.
